

To successfully enhance the company's growth through efficient and profitable operations and maximize its value, we are seeking an ambitious individual, with the experience in health & safety management, for position of:

Health & safety Agent

The Ideal candidate would be University graduated person in the field of safety or technical with previous working experience. Experience in hospitality is advantage but is not of major relevance.

Core responsibilities include:

- Direct reporting to Director of Logistic and Central Services Department
- Safety of hotels and employees
- Creation and development of action plans
- Education and inspections
- Handling accidents on work
- Organization of physical exams
- Contracting and planning
- Food safety - HACCP

Requirements:

- University degree in field of safety or technical
- 1 year of previous experience in similar environment. Experience in hospitality industry is a plus.
- In case of technical education competence and completed expert exam in field of employment protection is a must
- Competence for inspection of alcohol presence is an advantage
- Education in field of andragogy is an advantage too.
- Confident individual with high level organizational and communication skills
- Excellent English knowledge, both written and verbal

If you recognize yourself in above mentioned description please send us your application letter and a resume with current photo to: careers@suncanihvar.com

Only selected candidates will be invited for an interview.