„All our guests were very pleased to discover this „new“ destination still preserved from mass tourism and which offers a complete change of scenery at only a couple hours flight. Riva hotel is the incontrovertible address in Hvar; a very contemporary place in a beautiful historical property ideally situated on the marina. Thank you to all the staff for their irreproachable welcome and exemplary efficiency. The island offers great possibilities of cruising to the transparent waters, ideal for swimming and only a few minutes away from virgin beaches. We would love to come back soon.“

“After four exhausting days spent in organizing the 23rd International Meeting of Sabatina 2013 wine producers and winemakers, we can say that this year's Sabatina was one of the best organized and definitely the most visited. Hotel service was excellent, rooms at the hotel were prepared on time and according to the agreed plan, and your cooperation and flexibility for unplanned changes, showed that you worked closely with us to the extent like you're part of the Sabatina organization team.”

Cooperative Alliance of Dalmatia, Croatia

“The decision on the selection of the destination for our First conference for customers in the Balkans, was brought unanimously after a few views to pictures of Hotel Amfora!

The next crucial factor in our decision was the extremely fair, speedy and efficient response from the hotel, and the unpretentious communication combined to an efficient adaptation to our conditions. Everything from the first moment was performed with a top level of professionalism interlaced with genuine kindness. The rooms were carefully selected, every lunch and dinner, absolutely delivered to the smallest desires, the food was excellent, and here we must mention the team of young chefs who have devotedly stood at 40+ degrees on the outdoor terrace near the buffet table and ensured that everything was at all times available. We sincerely thank you for your hospitality and hard work and we will certainly organize our next conference with great pleasure and confidence in Hvar at the Sunčani Hvar Hotels.”
